

Please leave the NJ "do not call" law as it is. We enjoy the quiet times in the evening. If I want to do some company's business, I'll call them. Not the other way around. Even I had some business with them in the recent past they still shouldn't have the right to bother me.

Thanks and best regards,
Wilko